Family Traditions

"Our Meads were Scotch-Irish." (Miner Clark Mead).

"The Meads were Scotch-Irish, English, and French." (Grandchildren of Miner Burton Mead)

"Eliza Mead; Starr was of Scotch-Irish ancestry." (Grand-daughter of Eliza)

"Grandma Starr's Mead people were Scotch-Irish." (Grandson of Eliza)

"I heard when a child, that my great grandparents Mead were brought to this country when children from English and French parents." (Lura Mead; Reynolds)

"My father Thompson Mead always called himself-- 'A Green Mountain Boy'." (Lura Mead; Reynolds)

"One of our ancestors came from Tipperary, Ireland." (Victor Martin Mead)

"William Henry Mead lived on a plantation in North-Carolina, in St. Michael. His wife's maiden name was Mary Thompson. They had slaves. After William died, Mary married again, and the six children, all left home together. They traveled by wagon. There were no trains in those days. Thompson was the eldest son, Miner, and William were the other two boys. Caroline, Mary, and Betty the youngest, were the girls. They went up to Middletown, New York, where they stayed two months. Betty did not leave Middletown and that's the last they ever heard of her. From New York, they went to the Great-Lakes, and then to Upper Sandusky, Ohio. William and Mary were our ancestors." (Victor Martin Mead)

* "Jim Fisher, now (1935 or 1936) in the hospital, past 82 said that he left St. Michael in 1891, that it is in the northern part of North Carolina, and he lived ten miles from the Capital." (Victor Martin Mead)

"Leahy Clark; Mead was born about 1820 at Marietta, Ohio, descendant of an old Virginia family, that earlier had gone there from New Jersey. This family left Virginia and went up around through Pennsylvania, and Middletown, New York, then to the Great Lakes, and finally settled at Upper Sandusky, Ohio, where Betty Clark nearly grown, disappeared while picking berries close to the cabins. It was believed that Indians had kidnapped her." ---

* Jim came from Madison County, North Carolina near Moorehead

And Leafy died 1866, nearly forty five at death."
(Louisa Sourlook:Reynolds)

"I thought that our Meads came from Virginia."
(Grandson of Miner Burton Mead)

From The North Carolina Historical Commission

"We find record in the history of North Carolina, of no town named St. Michael, or St. Michael. We do find, however, that when Pitt County was created by act of legislature, 1670, it was erected into a parish named St. Michael."

Tennessee

The Watauga Association from 1769 to 1777
A part of North Carolina from 1777 to 1784

"In 1784, North Carolina stretched to the Mississippi; 10,000 "unprotected" settlers in interior wilds, secured, ed, set up Franklin State, named for Old Ben. Lucky officials could draw salaries in deer, racoon, mink, beaver skins, whisky, sugar, or bacon.

For four years, violence prevailed. Mobs of the two Governments raided, reraided each other. Then in 1788
Georgia triumphed. Franklin collapsed and Governor
John Sevier came to trial for high treason. But friend s stirred a ruckus in the court, and Sevier fled on a waiting horse." (Pathfinder Magazine)

From Dept. of Education, Nashville, Tennessee

"There was a St. Michael's Church in Accomac County, Va. in early days and one in South Carolina. There is no such place in Tennessee at this time."

"Since your question came, I have made a thorough search to locate a parish in Tennessee named St. Michael but have had no success, nor have I found any historian who ever heard of one."

St. Michael's parish, Charleston, South Carolina, established in 1751. Charleston was capital of South Carolina long ago, and once during the Rev. moved to Jacksonboro.
Later Columbia was laid out, and built just to be the capital.

The first fixed capital of North Carolina was New Bern where just before the Revolution, the famous Tryon's Palace was constructed. With the coming of the Revolution, it was felt, that the capital should be located further west, but for a number of years the matter was in dispute. Finally, in 1792, Raleigh was fixed as the seat of government, and has so remained ever since.

Scotch-Irish are descendants of those Presbyterian Scots who settled in Ulster (Northern Ireland) and later came to America. It has been stated with good reason by great historians, that the American Revolutionary War was won by the Scotch-Irish.

Norman De Prato meaning "of the meadow"

Anglo-Saxon word Med meaning "merit"

Most probable theory name taken by its first bearers because of their residence at or near the Mead or Mede meaning "meadow."

There are at least two Meade families in America, both being Irish, and neither of them in any way connected with the English Mead family.

Some descendants of Jonathan added the final "e" (Meade), but Weaver uses what he terms the "correct" spelling of the name, M-e-a-d, regardless of whether "e" is used or not. (Jonathan of the English family)

One of the first of the family to emigrate to this country was Gabriel Mead, sometimes called "Goodman" Mead, who came in the ship "Elizabeth" in April 1635, from Kent County, England, with his wife, Johanna Bates. They settled at Dorchester, Massachusetts, where he died 1666, leaving his wife and six children:- Israel, David, Lydia, Experience, Sarah, and Patience.

London Old Newgate Prison

Confined William PENN and William MEAD Quaker preachers. Tried in 1676, in Old Bailey, for preaching to an unlawful assembly in Grace Church St. A tablet in the entrance hall of the present "Old Bailey" records this fact and also an even more notable circumstance, which was that Thomas Vere, Edward Bushnell, and ten other jurymen, were locked up without food for two nights because they refused to give a verdict against the Quaker preachers, William Penn and William Mead.

Records indicate that the following lineage, (William 1, John 2, John 3, Jonathan 4, Enos 5, Michael 6), could be ours, but so far, I have been unable to prove it.

1 WILLIAM MEAD born England 1597 or 1600. Died 1663. Came to Massachusetts 1635. Migrated to Wethersfield, Connecticut, and then "Dec. 7, 1641, William Mayd rec'd from town of Stamford, a home lot and five acres of land." He married 1625, in England to Martha..... who died 9-19-1657.

Spencer P. Mead stated in his Genealogy of the Mead Family, that Jonathan & died unmarried, but later -- positive proof was found that Jonathan married Esther Butler, and lived in Nine Partners.

5 ENOS MEAD born 11-17-1721, lived Nine Partners, N.Y. in Dutchess County. Wife's name 'Melasen' (probably meant for Millicent). Will made 1744; Genealogical correspondents reported that no record of the probate of the will could be found in the counties of Albany, Dutchess, Rensselaer, Saratoga, Warren, and Washington. And I have been unable to find it in other counties. Issue:

Wife: Melasen.

Son: Gideon land land on which said son Gideon now dwells; also land in Charlotte County, Somerset twp.... land on west side of Delaware River. Son: MICHAEL 100 acres of land being a part of the same I live on bounded northerly by line called Bushes line west by land of James Winans, South by Lot No. 195 of the Great division Great Nine Partners, or the line called Edsall's line, and East by other land of mine.... so far east as to contain Eighty acres with a line parallel with the west side. I also give to son Michael as much land in Somerset Township, County of Charlotte lying on the west side of the Delaware River as I heretofore have given to my son Gideon to be holden to my said son Michael, his heirs and assigns. Daughter: Melasen, the wife of Israel Thompson; 400 acres of land out of my right in the aforementioned tract of land on west side of Delaware River..... Remainder to sons: William and Levy Mead.

Executors: Sons- William and Levy, and my trusty friend, Enos Thompson.

Witnesses: Ann Bookee, Mary Salkeld, Abraham Bookee.

(No Probate date given).

The will of Nehemiah Mead, brother of Enos, also devised rights on the Delaware River, but these "rights" were determined unconstitutional by the Courts and were of no value. Nehemiah was a farmer and lived at Grum-Elbow, New York.

In 1762, Grum Elbow divided into Armenia and Charlotte Precincts. This was part of the Great Nine Partners division of 1697. Little Nine Partners granted in 1706

From Clerk of Surrogate's Court in Ticonderoga, N.Y.:-

There is no Somerset Township in Essex County, and I am unable to find that there ever was. Would it be possible that land 'west of the Delaware' might be in the State of Pennsylvania?

From New York State Library:-

There was a Charlotte County, but it is now obsolete. It was formed in 1772 from Albany County, and comprised the present counties of Washington, Warren, Clinton, and Essex in New York State, and sections of Bennington, Rutland, Addison, Chittenden, and Franklin Counties in the present State of Vermont. It was named for the Princess Charlotte of Mecklenburg-Strelitz. In 1784 its name was changed to Washington, and as the settlement of the frontier increased, subdivisions took place until the original county was split up into the above named counties.

There was also a Charlotte precinct in Dutchess County which comprised the present towns of Stanford, Clinton, and Washington. No one of these localities would have been near the Delaware River, nor to my knowledge is there any Somerset Township in New York State, except in Niagara County.

I wonder if the land referred to in Enos Mead's will might not have been in the Charlotte Patent, town of Summit, Schoharie County. This land was on the Charlotte River, and is west of the Delaware as stated in the will.

There is a town called Charlotteville in this twp.

Rev. J. H. deMille spent a large part of his life in making research and collecting records, both in England and America, for a genealogy of the Mead family, which

From GENEALOGY AND HISTORY, Washington, D.C. Editors:- Mr and Mrs Mount. Their reference:- Coll. of the State of New York.:-

In 1763, the celebrated controversy of New York with New Hampshire commenced. The territory in question comprised the county between Connecticut River and Lake Champlain, S. of which the line was esteemed 20 mi E. of Hudson R. A decision was obtained from the crown 1764, favorable to N.Y. which proceeded to exercise jurisdiction. The S.W. part was annexed to Albany and the N.W. part organized as Charlotte County; and E. of Green Mts. formed Gloucester and Cumberland counties.

Grants of land 1760 from N.H. were declared illegal and settlers required to take out new charters from N.Y. Some of the towns complied and purchased their lands the second time but the greater part refused.....
.....(1784, Charlotte renamed Washington county)....

The breaking out of the Rev. caused a suspension of local and provincial contests. In 1791, the disputed section was admitted into the Union as an independent state, Vermont, with the lower part of its W. Boundary on a line with those of Mass. and Ct. and Lake Champlain as the upper boundary.

Thus Charlotte county and that part of Albany county set up as Rensselaer county 1791, lost the strip W. of Green Mts.

The land conveyed was "in the actual possession now being of the party of the second part." The description of property is the same as in the foregoing deed. Signed by Ephraim and Jane Mead, both by mark. There is no signature of a witness. It was acknowledged by Ephraim Mead and Jane Mead, September 9, 1819, before John Sutton, a Judge of the Common Pleas of Tompkins co and recorded September 27, 1819.

Book D. page 29 ... February 29, 1820 Israel Thompson Mead of Ulysses, sold to Ephraim Mead of the same place for $100. "land in actual possession now being" 25 acres description same as above. Israel T. and Elizabeth Mead both sign by mark in the presence of John Sutton Deed acknowledged March 21, 1820. Recorded 1821, 7th day (month does not appear on the record). This is the last conveyance of Israel T. Mead noted in the first index of Deeds of Tompkins county, N.Y.

March 10, 1821, the town of Enfield was formed from Ulysses. By this division of the town of Ulysses, lot number Sixty, Ulysses, became lot number Sixty, Enfield.

The Deeds do not give the relationship (if any) of the two men, Ephraim Mead and Israel T. Mead.

Ulysses township, Tompkins County, New York, settled in 1792, now called Trumansburg. Settled by Tremain brothers, and Benjamin Phillip's son. Ulysses organized Onondaga County, March 5, 1799.

Descendants of Mary Mead: Miller (daughter of Israel T. Mead) claim that Mary was born in Indiana near the Ohio line. According to family Bible, Oliver died 1823, and Dr. Weeks states that Oliver died in Indiana. So it seems that Israel went to Indiana from New York, and then back to Ohio. But so far I have found no record of him in Indiana.

Victor Martin Mead (grandson of Israel T.) stated in a letter, that at one time when his (Victor's) father Thompson lived out of Bristol, Ohio, that a first cousin Alva Mead lived in Bristol, and later about 1880-8, Alva lived in New York City where he owned or managed a cigar and Tobacco Store on Park Avenue. Alva collected old songs, and corresponded with Victor M. Mead.

After a brief search of Bristol (Trumbull co.) Ohio, no records of our Meads were found.

I have wondered if Victor might have made a mistake in States and meant Indiana? There is a village named Bristol laid out in the 1830s ... then in 1834, Sydneyham was established... later on they merged under the name Bristol, in Elkhart county, Indiana.

The 1830 Census of Clarksfield, Huron county, Ohio, lists a Jared T. Mead, but no Israel T. Mead.

There is a record that William Rowland of Clarksfield Ohio died 1840.

It seems from the land record, and Dr. Weeks, that Elizabeth married William Rowland shortly after the death of Israel Mead, but no one of the descendants of Elizabeth have knowledge of this, nor have I found record of the marriage. They all do remember the Gould marriage and some of the older citizens of Middlebury have knowledge of Elizabeth and Kiah Gould.... as will show from following letters.

My father, M.A. Stutz, does not remember any of the people you asked about, except Rev. Gould. He said that at one time, Rev. Gould's wife became ill in a neighbor ing town, and that he borrowed the Middlebury hearse to bring her home, as it would be more comfortable than a wagon. She was very indignant and at first refused to ride in it, but finally consented to be taken home that way. My father was born in 1858, so you see, he was just a young boy."

"The only party mentioned in your letter, I ever heard of was Rev. Gould, and that was hearing my father and mother laugh about him going after Mrs. Gould at Howe, Indiana, in a hearse with feather bed and blankets. She became ill on her visit there. When he arrived with this vehicle, she was most indignant and said, 'I'll save that for my last ride.' If any one can answer your questions, that I know of, would be H.S. Bartholomew He was reared in Jefferson Township, but his address would be R.R. Goshen, Indiana." Frank A. Walker.

(p. 245) "One day as Elder ALLEN MEAD was traveling across the eastern side of the township, he saw a large bear out in the woods some distance from, eating acorns. Being unarmed, he hurried on and told Abner Scarlett what he had seen. Scarlett was a good hunter, and immediately started in pursuit of the bear, which had left its feeding ground and gone into a swamp. The hunter followed it in, and finally, catching sight of it, fired, but only wounded it. The animal left the swamp and was instantly shot by a young man named Otis Allen. Both men immediately claimed the bear, and finally resorted to blows to establish their claim. Mr. Allen probably had the heavier fists as he bore off the prize."

S. Sanford and Washington Sanford were early settlers of Noble twp.

Lands were entered at Fort Wayne. Early settlers mostly lived on Fort Wayne and Goshen Road.

ELIZA MEAD: STARR born 1795 in New York State. Died 1836. Buried in the Day Cemetery in Clarksville, Ohio. Married Ira Starr born 1789/91 in Connecticut. He came from New York to Indiana, then to Seneca county Ohio, and to Clarksville in 1828, where he bought a farm, then sold it in 1833, and moved across the road, and kept a small store. In 1836, bought seventy five acres, and built a block house, which faced the main road between Clarksville and New London. Had a tailor shop in one room. He was a tailor by trade. Farm sold in 1840, and he moved to Hayesville, Ohio, where he kept a store with his son in law, Francis Barnes. In his youth he was a post-rider, carrying the mail on horseback. In some way his leg was injured, so that it had to be amputated twice, first below the knee, and then above. This was done without anesthetic, and with only a butcher knife, and a hack saw. After the death of Eliza, he lived with his children, and died at the home of his daughter Mrs Betsy Ann Starr: Twiss, in Kent City, Michigan in 1885, and buried in the Chubbuck Cemetery, about three miles north of Kent City. Descendants claim that Eliza was of Scotch-Irish ancestry.

Dear Sister (Orpha)

I take my pen in hand to let you know that I am well at present, and I hope these few lines will find you the same. I had a good time the fourth. Friday night before the fourth, they had a dance in Uncle Miner's barn. There were not many there, only thirty couples. Platt Hall got up the dance, and aunt Jane got the supper, and a better one could not be got. I am working for Ed Hall, Salile's old man for twenty dollar a month. We are getting out bridge timbers. He has got five bridges to build. He gets fourteen hundred dollars for the five bridges. Uncle Miner got your letter that you wrote to me the day before I got back from Cherokee. I have told you all the news this time. So good by, this is from you brother Miner. Please write soon.

(Note to Eunice, step daughter of Orpha, written on same paper.)
Well Eunice I received your kind letter, and was glad to hear from you. I was down to Smithland on the fourth, and I saw some of my friends there from Little - Sioux. They were Eli McCalley, John Dickey, and Trevo.

Well you must excuse a short letter this time. This is from Miner to Eunice. Good by.

(following from Miner C. Mead to his sister Orpha and her husband)

Oto, Woodbury County, Iowa. Sept. 17th (no year date)

Dear Brother I take my pen in hand to let you know, that I am alive and well, and I hope these few lines will find you the same. I suppose you are done haying by this time. Well, we are not done yet. We have got 60 tons up, and we have 30 tons more to stack, and then we have 75 acres of corn to gather, and I think we will have sore fingers before we are done. I don't know whether I will come down there this fall or not. Well Levi, I will send two dollars and 10¢ in this letter, and if you will take it to Mr Gamet, you will do me a favor. If you get this, write and let me know. This is all this time. Well Orpha, I will write you a few lines this time. Well I suppose you have not heard the sad news of the death of our cousin Erasmus. He died the 2nd day of Sept. He was down in Missouri when he died. Uncle Miner went down after him, but he was not able to come home with him, so he left him. I am going to Sioux City next week, and I am going to get some photographs taken, and then I will send you one. You must write soon as you get this, and tell me how all of our folks are getting along. You must write and tell me where Eunice is, and what she is doing. Mr Davis, Erasmus lost one of his horses the other day. Well Orpha, I am working at a place where we have 12 cows to milk, and they make lots of butter and cheese. I can say that I have had cheese enough to eat once. They have got about 600 pounds of butter on hand now. Good by this time. This is from your brother, Miner C. Mead to his brother and sister, Orpha and Levi Perkins.

My Dear Cousin

I take this pleasant opportunity of answering your kind and most welcome letter which found us all well. I received your kind and most good letter our school will be out and I wish you were to go to school with us. We have got a good school Teacher. Her name is Mrs Denison. My Dear Niece

I take this pleasant opportunity of answering your kind and most welcome letter, which came to hand last Friday night. And it found us all well, and we hope these few lines will find you enjoying the same blessing. We would like to see you very well. Our school will be out next month. We had a celebration here the fourth of July. We had a pretty good time. I have got a nice field of wheat, and oats are not good. I got a letter from mother not long ago, and she said that they were pretty well. She said they had to work pretty hard for a living. She sent me her likeness, so I could see how she looked at 73 years of age. I got a letter from Mary the Miller, my sister, and she said they were all well. There is not going to be many plums here, but I want you to come up anyhow. I can't think of much to write, so I guess I will by asking you to write. This for Miner B. Mead to Orpha A. Mead.

(The Tompkins county deed mentions that Elizabeth and Israel signed by mark. But above letter by Miner Burton Mead, son of Elizabeth and Israel, speaks of receiving a letter from his mother. Also Mary Randolph Clark speaks in one of her letters that Elizabeth wrote letters) *word written in letter sent to me appeared to be Madas or Madows.

July 18, 1860 Dear Friend, We are all well and I hope these few lines will find you the same. It has been so long since I have heard from you. I have almost forgotten you, but I hope you have not forgotten me. Mother has been sick, but she is well now. We are going to have a celebration on Friday. I am going, and I wish you were here to go with me. I suppose you have heard about Al going back east. He started the first of November. We look for him this month. The last letter I got from him, he said that he was a coming back this month, and I hope it is so. I go to school every day. I and Emily reads and writes together. Albert and Martin are both married. Martin's wife is one of the best women there is in the country. Martin had a pretty girl, but it did not live, but three months. She was to our house when she died. They called her Julia. I have got a nice dress as emy-one around here. Father got it last winter. I had it made to wear tomorrow. Tell Henerrett to write and Miner also. I wish you was here to go a goosebering with me. I give my respects to all. Write as soon as you get this. This is the first letter I ever wrote. Please write. I spect Emily is writing all the news. I have nothing to write now. From Sallie Livermore to Orpha Mead.

From Victor Martin Mead (Thompson, Israel, Michael).

One day while riding through the woods in Ohio, Tomson Mead caught sight of a panther following. Not having a gun, he let his frightened horse run. The panther circled back into the brush, and leaped out, but landed ten feet from horse and rider.

In this same country, one chased two children into their home. They slammed the door, and barred it. The panther thrust his paw through the logs trying to reach them. The boy ran an iron poker through the animal's leg, thus holding him fast. The screams of pain soon brought the neighbors, who clubbed it to death.

(Ira and Jesse Mead, sons of Miner C. L. Thompson 3, Israel 2, Michael 1)

When Ira and Jesse were the only children, Miner and Rose lived on a farm in Iowa on the Missouri river bottom. One day, Rose saw a band of Indians coming. (Miner had gone to town for supplies), so she locked the doors, took the two little boys upstairs, hid one of them in the attic, and the other in a clothes closet on a shelf. Then she watched from a window, to one side of the blind. The Indians searched the sheds, barn, etc. Then came to the house, tried the doors, looked into all the windows down stairs, then talked it over among themselves for some time. Finally they rode away. The Indians dressed in a wild fashion were one of the marauding bands escaped from a reservation. It was a harrowing experience for young Mrs Mead and her small sons. The two boys never forgot. (They told me about this). Neither one of them were old enough for school.

From Amy Scurlock (Henrietta C. Mead, Thompson, Israel, Michael)

My father went to the Black Hills of South Dakota, when I was about five, on a prospecting tour, leaving mother and the children at Valley, Nebraska. He had a partner, Jim Berry. Our Store keeper, Ben White financed the trip. The Indians were still on the war path, and the men had to go mostly by stage coach or the freight wagons. Buffalo Bill guarded the freight teams, and father saw and talked with him several times. One night while father was gone, as the men sat around the general store, they talked about an account of an -

Indian massacre in the Black Hills which was printed in a small paper from Custer City. Father's name was among the listed dead. Orion was standing near the door and he ran out and started for home. Uncle Miner C. Mead caught and made him promise not to tell mother. Uncle Miner said, "It probably is a mistake." And so it proved, as father came home in about six months. We children never tired listening to the stories of life and danger among the Indians. (Orion was Amy's brother)

Poetry by Ermina Perkins (Orpha A. Mead, Thompson, Israel, Michael)

MY LILLY FAIR

I held in my hand a wondrous thing.
A lilly bud rich and rare,
Whose subtle odor in soft perfume
Floated out on the evening air.
The outer wrapping of palest green
From the center fell soft apart,
While fragrant petals of creamy white
Bent close o'er the golden heart
I gazed on my treasure with pure delight.
My heart in rapture aglow
With love for God, who beauties untold
Has fashioned for us below.
A heartfelt yearning swept over me,
I silently breathed a prayer
That He, who could, would render me pure
In His sight as the lilly fair.
A change came over my thought and I
In a moment stood full in view
Of the rippling lake, from whose dark depths
My water lilly grew.
In fancy I saw the tiny seed
Drop deep in the damp, dark mold,
The roots creep down through the reeking earth,
The mother earth, dark and cold.
The slender stem through the slime and mud
Push on in its upward way,
Ne'er daunted by snares of moss and grass,
Growing stronger day by day.
Though tossed and beaten by wind and wave,
It pursues its mission of love,
'Till it finally reaches the surface clear
And blooms in beauty above.
Then a soft voice whispered, "Through mud and slime
And snares of the world at large,
If thou wilt struggle and still be true."

To thy trust, and the Father's charge,
When the waves of death's river as cold submerge
Thy form, and still each care,
Thy soul shall in newness and beauty bloom
As pure as the lilly fair."

TO A ROSEBUD

I hold thee fast thou dainty thing,
Thou precious bit of coloring,
Thou'st brightened up the world so fair,
And flung thy perfume on the air
Till now thou half unfolded lie
Within my hand. What' doomed to die
And fade for ever? Nay, sweet to live,
Till thou thy richest perfume give,
And then within my memory pressed,
Wilt thou, fair rose, forever rest.
I press thee to my lips and kiss
The dewdrops which have deemed it bliss
To lie within thy fragrant heart
And form of thy sweet self a part,
They count thee, too, my dainty rose,
The fairest flower of all that grows.

Happy, happy childhood hours, swift they glided past;
Faded like the perfumed flow'rs, only memories last;
Golden treasures, jewels rare, filched from childhood's store,
Looked in memory's casket there, whisper "Childhood's O'er,"

Michael Sept. 4, 1718; Enos and Nehemiah (twins) Nov. 17,

Jonathan and Esther Butler Mead.

Dear Mrs Firestone:

I regret exceedingly that I cannot give you the information you asked for in your letter of November 4, 1936, addressed to my father, August Geringer, who has been dead since April 1, 1930.

I have heard him speak about Klucenice which is not far from his birthplace, and not far from where his father was teacher. name of the place, ... Lasocive.

My parents came to this country in 1869. I have never heard them mention the name of the boat.

Very truly yours,

V.A. Geringer.

Anna told her son Joseph, that she had a brother named Joseph who lived in Chicago, Illinois. I have been unable to find trace of him in that city.

Anna corresponded with her people who lived in Europe for many years, but the letters, and all addresses were accidentally destroyed after her death, and before I became interested in research. No one of her children remember names, except Barbara and Josefa.

A correspondent of mine, living in Chicago, informed me, that Kotnurova is the feminine spelling, and that Kotnour is the masculine.
